The Handbook of Middle American Indians is a series of edited scholarly and reference volumes in Native American studies, ... initiated following a special congressional appropriation in fiscal year 1971. To date, 15 volumes have been published. The Handbook of Middle American Indians was assembled and edited at the Middle American Research Institute of Tulane University. It is published in cooperation with the National Science Foundation and under the sponsorship of the National Research Council Committee on Latin American Anthropology.